BILL GILES
*President,
 Chief Executive Officer and General Partner*

From a part-time staffer who did odds and ends to the President of a major league baseball club. That's the lifetime baseball story of William Y. (Bill) Giles.

Born in Rochester, NY, on September 7, 1934, nearly all of Giles' life has been spent around the game of baseball. His father, the late Warren C. Giles, was President and General Manager of the Cincinnati Reds (1946-51) and President of the National League (1951-69). Bill's mother died when he was nine so he spent long hours and a lot of days with his father at Crosley Field in Cincinnati.

Bill's first job in baseball came when he was "around 14" years of age. It wasn't a glamorous position, as he did all kinds of odds and ends in the Cincinnati Reds' Public Relations Department.

He attained his current position on October 29, 1981. It was on this date, Giles' group of partners purchased the Phillies from the Carpenter family. When the Carpenters announced they were selling the club prior to the 1981 season, Giles went to work organizing a group. He interviewed a field of 200 potential partners. His final group consisted of six different partners.

Giles' path to Philadelphia wound through the minor leagues and two big league clubs.

His first official baseball position came when he was 19, following his freshman year at Denison University. "I was sent to Morristown (TN) in the old Mountain States League as General Manager to save a poor team. Within a week, the entire league folded," he laughs now.

While at Denison he played football and baseball and was President of the Sigma Chi fraternity his senior year.

Following graduation (B. A. degree in Economics), Giles spent three years in the U. S. Air Force as a navigator in the Strategic Air Command.

His baseball career began full time in 1959, following a discharge from the Air Force, when he was named General Manager of the Nashville Vols (Cincinnati Reds minor league team). From there he moved to the expansion Houston Colt .45s.

While in Houston, Giles served as Traveling Secretary, Publicity Director, Director of Public Relations and Promotions and Vice President. With the opening of Veterans Stadium approaching, the Carpenter family brought Giles to Philadelphia to run the business end of the operation.

Giles began his Phillies career as Vice President, Business Operations, following the 1969 baseball season. Three years later he was promoted to Executive Vice President.

The Phillies are very active in the community. The tone for community involvement is set by Giles. He donates many hours to the community. He's active in many organizations: Chairman of the Board, Philadelphia Convention and Tourism Bureau; member of the Executive Committee, Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce and Philadelphia Sports Congress; on the board of the Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce, Economic Coalition and the Police Athletic League; and a member of the Union League and Rotary Club.

Giles has been honored many, many times for his contributions to the city. Among the awards: Distinguished Citizen of the Year (1985) by the Boy Scouts of America and 1992 recipient of the Garry Maddox Award by the Philadelphia Child Guidance Center. In April 1993, he joins a long list of distinguished Philadelphians honored by PAL.

Giles is likewise very active in Major League Baseball matters. He's currently on the Official Rules Committee, Television Committee and Schedule Format Committee.

Bill and his wife, Nancy, reside in Villanova. They are the parents of three sons, Michael, Joseph and Chris.

He has been given two contract extensions since that time, taking him through the 1994 season. In January of 1992 his title was changed once again to Senior Vice President and General Manager.

He joined the Phillies after being Director of Player Development for the St. Louis Cardinals since 1981. An 18-year career with the Cardinals began in 1970 when he was a triple-A player-coach at Tulsa. From there, Thomas was the Cardinals bullpen coach (1971-72), minor league manager (1973 at Sarasota and 1974 at Modesto), assistant in the sales and promotions department with the major league club, traveling secretary (1976-80) and then Director, Player Development, (1981-88).

An outfielder-first baseman, Thomas signed with the Yankees in 1954. He played seven years in the majors with the Yankees, Angels, Red Sox, Braves, Cubs and Astros and one year in Japan (1969) with the Nankai Hawks. He was an All-Star with the Angels in 1962.

TEAM HISTORY

The first game in National League history was played in Philadelphia in 1876, the Philadelphia Athletics facing Boston on April 22 at 25th and Jefferson Streets. The Philadelphia entry, however, didn't last the season and so the Quaker City was without representation in the National League until 1883. Alfred J. Reach purchased the Worcester, Mass., club (Brown Stockings) and moved it to Philadelphia, adopting "Phillies" as the official team name, a takeoff on Philadelphia or Philly.

The name "Phillies" is the oldest team name in the league.

The Phillies' initial game was a 4-3 loss to the Providence Grays, before 1,000 at Recreation Park, 23rd Street and Ridge Pike. Bob Ferguson managed the Phils in that first game, May 1, 1883.

In 1887, the Phillies moved into a new "magnificent park" at Broad and Huntingdon Streets, which was later to become known as Baker Bowl (capacity 15,000). An estimated 20,000 jammed the park for the game on April 30 and saw the Phillies maul the New York Giants, 19-10.

One of baseball's biggest disasters struck the Phillies in 1903. Twelve people were killed and 232 injured when the left field bleachers collapsed after fans had climbed to the top row to get a better view of a near-by fire.

The Phillies' owner in 1910, Horace Fogel, started a personal campaign with the press to change the name of his club. "The name Phillies is too trite and the Quakers (as they were sometimes called) stands for peaceful people who will dodge a fight. We're going to fight. Why don't you fellas call the club the 'Live Wires'," Fogel pleaded with the press. His efforts went for naught.

Baker Bowl, which had a short right-field line (280 feet) and a rather deep left field (341) became the site of the World Series in 1915 as the Phillies won their first league title. The Boston Red Sox, however, took the World Series, four games to one.

In 1927, the Baker Bowl wooden bleachers again gave way, and the Phillies, through the graces of Philadelphia Athletics' owner John Shibe, were invited to play at Shibe Park until the necessary repairs could be made. "I remember our first game in Shibe Park very well," recalled the late owner Gerry Nugent. "It was the day Lindberg arrived in Paris."

Back to Baker Bowl went the Phillies, who played the first Sunday baseball game in Philadelphia there in 1934, losing to Brooklyn, 8-7.

The Phillies moved permanently to Shibe Park on July 4, 1938 after 51 years at Baker Bowl. The Phils lost the first game to Boston, 10-8, but came back behind the pitching of Claude Passeau to win the nightcap, 10-2.

Late in 1943, the Phillies were sold to R.R.M. Carpenter, Jr. Between Reach and Carpenter, nine others owned the club. To stimulate interest in the club, a contest was conducted to find a nickname for the Phillies. For 1944 and 1945, the club was known as the Blue Jays, although they still maintained the official "Phillies" title.

Seven years after Carpenter took over, the Phillies rose to become National League champions, for the second time in club history. Again, the World Series crown eluded them, as the New York Yankees swept the series, 4-0.

Bob Carpenter, after 29 years as the club president, moved up to chairman of the Board on Nov. 22, 1972. He was succeeded as president by his son, Ruly Carpenter.

After 32 1/2 seasons in Shibe Park-Connie Mack Stadium, in which the Phillies won 1,205 and lost 1,340, the club moved into the spectacular new Veterans Stadium for the 1971 season.

The Philadelphia Athletics won the first game at Shibe Park, 8-1 over Boston on April 12, 1909. The Phillies won the park's finale, 2-1 over Montreal on Oct. 1, 1970, a 10-inning battle.

In the first game played in the 56,731 seat Veterans Stadium, the Phillies defeated the Montreal Expos 4-1 on April 10, 1971.

By the end of the decade the Phillies had developed into one of baseball's top franchises, winning division titles in three successive years, 1976, 1977 and 1978.

Then finally on Tuesday, October 21, 1980 at 11:29 p.m. the Phillies achieved the ultimate - they became World Champions for the first time in their 98-year history. The Phils downed the Kansas City Royals, four games to two, and Mike Schmidt was named the Series MVP.

The Carpenter era with the Phillies came to an end on Oct. 29, 1981, when they sold the club to a group headed by Bill Giles.

For the second time in four years the Phillies captured the National League Pennant in 1983 and played for the World Championship. However, history did not repeat as the Phils lost the series to the Baltimore Orioles four games to one.

FREE AGENCY

Free agency came about in 1976 when 24 players refused to sign contracts and opted for, at season's end, the right to participate in a re-entry draft.

That draft took place in New York on November 4. Clubs were permitted to select players with whom they could negotiate. There was no compensation for clubs who lost players in this draft.

In later years, the draft was abolished and compensation was required.

Other than signing their own players who had opted for free agency and free agent players signed after being released, the Phillies involvement in the free agent market has been:

1976:	Signed Richie Hebner from Pirates Lost Dave Cash to Montreal
1978:	Signed Pete Rose from Cincinnati
1984:	Lost Sixto Lezcano to Pittsburgh
1987:	Signed Lance Parrish from Detroit Signed David Palmer from Atlanta
1989:	Signed Carmelo Martinez from San Diego
1990:	Signed Wally Backman from Pittsburgh
1992:	Signed Mariano Duncan from Cincinnati
1993:	Signed Pete Incaviglia from Houston Signed Milt Thompson from St. Louis

BLUE JAYS

The Phillies were unofficially called the Blue Jays as a result of a contest held in January, 1944. The Phillies were in the market for a new nickname and insignia. Bob Carpenter, Jr. said the Phillies would offer one $100 War Bond and three season passes for the best suggestions. However, he made it clear that he had no intention of dropping the name Phillies or Phils, but believed the club should have an additional designation.

After receiving 5,064 letters and 623 suggestions, Mrs. John L. Crooks' choice of the Blue Jays was picked. It was one of seven where the Blue Jays were suggested.

Many fans protested the "new" name. Regardless, the name was used heavily for the first two years (1944-45) and then gradually faded away.

DID YOU KNOW?

The largest trade in Phillies history involved eight players. There were two eight player deals involving the Phils:

On October 7, 1969, Richie Allen, Cookie Rojas and Jerry Johnson were traded to St. Louis for Curt Flood, Tim McCarver, Joe Hoerner and Byron Browne. Flood refused to report and the Cardinals sent Willie Montanez and Bob Browning in his place.

On February 23, 1979, the Phillies traded Barry Foote, Ted Sizemore, Jerry Martin, Derek Botelho and Henry Mack to the Cubs for Manny Trillo, Greg Gross and Dave Rader.

Scranton/Wilkes-Barre won the regular season pennant in the International League East Division. Spartanburg was the second half winner in the South Atlantic League North Division.

Three (SWB, Clearwater and Spartanburg) of the six teams were in post-season play, a first for the Phillies since they also had three in 1980. Two other teams (Reading and Batavia) were eliminated from playoffs late in their seasons.
